

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This series of Skill Refreshers highlights each of the coaching skills: presence and listening, reflecting/clarifying, questioning, feedback, and accountability. Learners practice each skill to gain proficiency and confidence in using the Coach Approach with their staff. Learners have the opportunity to engage in a variety of discussions, activities and practice sessions that promote and support mastery of the coaching skills. The Skill Refreshers constitute Phase I of the Advanced Coaching program. Completion of this series of five Skill Refreshers qualifies learners to move on to Phase II of the Advanced Coaching program. Before attending these trainings, learners must complete all prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Continue practicing the coaching skills.
- Receive in-the-moment feedback and support from facilitators.
- Increase their confidence and proficiency in using the coaching skills in their daily practice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Skill Refresher, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-hour workshop (instructor-led or virtual).

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to starting this series, learners are required to have completed:

- All components of the Building Coaching Competency learning program (instructor-led or virtual) or the instructor-led Building Coaching Competency for Senior Administrators course.
- At least one course within the Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives learning program (virtual or instructor-led).

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

The New York City Administration for Children's Services is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers #SW-0402. Each Skill Refresher is 2 contact hours/0.2 CEUs. This series in total is 10 contact hours/1 CEU. CEU credit is contingent upon completion of all components.

Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

The Coaching Collaboratives are a follow up to the Building Coaching Competency (BCC) learning program designed to support supervisors and managers as they integrate coaching into their supervisory practice. These virtual workshops provide learners the opportunity to practice coaching, meet with colleagues to discuss successes in coaching, and gain support on how to continue to implement coaching in the workplace. Ongoing support after the workshop includes, but is not limited to, on-site technical assistance. Before attending this virtual, instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Increase their confidence in using the six coaching skills and six coaching steps that have been adapted from the coaching approach of the Atlantic Coast Child Welfare Implementation Center and in mastering the coaching process.
- Be trained how to create a coaching community among Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice supervisors and managers.
- Be trained how to bolster an individual's commitment to using the coach approach and support a coaching culture across all sectors of Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

A two-hour, virtual workshop.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to attending this course, learners are required to have completed all components of the Building Coaching Competency learning program (instructor-led or virtual) OR the instructor-led Building Coaching Competency for Senior Administrators course.

A learning program required for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection. Direct service staff and supervisors in Prevention and Foster Care are also required to attend.

ABOUT

This learning program is a continuation of Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships and enables learners to further practice and apply the skills presented in the prior training. Through a variety of learning approaches, including case scenarios, games and both large and small group role plays, learners build on their knowledge of the four fundamental tasks of Motivational Interviewing (MI): engagement, focusing, evoking and planning. Additionally, learners deepen their understanding of strategies for highlighting change talk and softening sustain talk when working toward behavioral change with youths and families.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Review the spirit and fundamental processes of MI.
- Demonstrate effective use of MI microskills.
- Be able to elicit and reinforce change talk and soften sustain talk.
- Deepen their understanding of evoking and planning, two of the fundamental tasks of MI.
- Process and practice the knowledge and skills acquired both in this training and Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 6.5-hour, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to attending this course, learners are required to have completed all components of the course, Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships.

A learning program for Direct service staff and supervisors working in Child Protection, Prevention or Foster Care services.

ABOUT

This learning program takes a child-centered approach to intimate partner violence (IPV). During this learning program, learners are trained to identify and respond to IPV in a way that supports the non-abusive parent and children, identifies the abusive partner's pattern of behavior and documents the impact of the abuse on the children and family. The course is highly interactive, enabling learners to apply new knowledge and to practice skills in a supportive classroom environment. Before attending this instructor-led training, learners must complete an online pre-test and an eLearning module.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Better understand how to engage survivors, children and abusive partners using a strengths-based approach of compassion, partnership and respect.
- Better assess how an abusive partner is creating risk for the non-abusive partner and the children.
- Be trained how to write case notes that focus on protective strategies, behaviors that place children at risk and details that hold the abusive partner accountable.
- Be able to devise effective service plans that focus on the safety of the child and survivor.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A one-hour eLearning course.

A two-day, instructor-led workshop.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

LGBTQAI+ Refresher: Improving Outcomes for LGBTQAI+ Young People

A learning program for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in ACS and ACS provider agencies.

ABOUT

This learning program aims to expand learners' understanding of the needs and strengths of LGBTQAI+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Questioning, Asexual, Intersex, and many more) young people and the key issues they face while involved with the Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice systems in New York City. Learners follow a scenario to explore themes of affirming vs. derogatory language, using correct terminology, and identifying strategies that support identity and feelings of personal safety and security. In alignment with ACS policy, learners are required to repeat this Refresher course once every two years after completion of LGBTQAI+ Foundational: Include, Empower and Affirm. Before attending this virtual, instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below, an eLearning and an online pre-test.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Explore how to create inclusive and affirming environments for LGBTQAI+ young people.
- Review and understand the ACS policies that support LGBTQAI+ young people.
- Better understand how to help staff manage issues with parents, foster parents and caregivers of LGBTQAI+ young people.
- Develop their ability to promote the safety, permanency and well-being of LGBTQAI+ young people.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

A 30-minute eLearning.

A learning program for direct service staff and supervisors working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This learning program engages learners with each other about implicit biases and how those biases contribute to racial disproportionality in the Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice systems — strengthening ACS's practices to support children and families starts from within the individual. During this virtual session, learners deepen their understanding and discuss the influences of implicit bias on institutional racism and structural inequity. Learners also practice strategies to reduce implicit bias and enhance equitable decision making in their work. Before attending this virtual, instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below and an online pre-test.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Understand key concepts of implicit bias and causes of racial disproportionality in Child Welfare.
- Have reviewed strategies to identify one's own implicit biases and to recognize implicit bias in others.
- Have analyzed how implicit bias affects decision-making, engagement and equitable outcomes.
- Be trained to identify the connection between trauma, institutional racism, structural inequity and implicit bias.
- Be able to employ individual strategies to reduce implicit bias.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 6.5-hour, virtual, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to attending this course, learners are required to have completed the Understanding and Undoing Implicit Bias eLearning training.
