

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This series of Skill Refreshers highlights each of the coaching skills: presence and listening, reflecting/clarifying, questioning, feedback, and accountability. Learners practice each skill to gain proficiency and confidence in using the Coach Approach with their staff. Learners have the opportunity to engage in a variety of discussions, activities and practice sessions that promote and support mastery of the coaching skills. The Skill Refreshers constitute Phase I of the Advanced Coaching program. Completion of this series of five Skill Refreshers qualifies learners to move on to Phase II of the Advanced Coaching program. Before attending these trainings, learners must complete all prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Continue practicing the coaching skills.
- Receive in-the-moment feedback and support from facilitators.
- Increase their confidence and proficiency in using the coaching skills in their daily practice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Skill Refresher, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-hour workshop (instructor-led or virtual).

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to starting this series, learners are required to have completed:

- All components of the Building Coaching Competency learning program (instructor-led or virtual) or the instructor-led Building Coaching Competency for Senior Administrators course.
- At least one course within the Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives learning program (virtual or instructor-led).

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

The New York City Administration for Children's Services is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers #SW-0402. Each Skill Refresher is 2 contact hours/0.2 CEUs. This series in total is 10 contact hours/1 CEU. CEU credit is contingent upon completion of all components.

A learning program for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection, Prevention, Foster Care and Juvenile Justice. Direct service staff and supervisors in Child Protection, Prevention and Foster Care are required to attend.

ABOUT

This learning program is an update of the previous Motivational Interviewing: A Strengths-Based Practice and Foundational Motivational Interviewing (MI) courses. In this course, learners strengthen their capacity to use MI towards building partnerships. Learners examine their own style of communication and how it impacts the thoughts of others regarding change. Learners demonstrate their ability to listen to the perspectives of families and caregivers to shape how questions are asked, accurately identify their needs, and help draw out their own ideas for ways to change. Using scenarios and group exercises, learners hone their ability to cultivate strengths-based conversations, model affirmations, and make effective reflections.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Define MI in a way that underscores its guiding nature and demonstrates its guiding aspects.
- Describe the spirit and four fundamental tasks of MI.
- Identify and demonstrate MI OARS (Open-Ended Questions, Affirmations, Reflections and Summaries) microskills.
- Recognize “change talk” and “sustain talk” in the context of MI and explain the role they play in supporting individuals to make behavioral change.
- Identify how MI can be used in day-to-day work.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A four-hour, virtual, instructor-led workshop.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this course.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Practicum

A learning program required for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection. Direct service staff and supervisors in Prevention are also required to attend. The program is recommended for those working in foster care agencies.

ABOUT

This learning program is a continuation of Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships and enables learners to further practice and apply the skills presented in the prior training. Through a variety of learning approaches, including case scenarios, games and both large and small group role plays, learners build on their knowledge of the four fundamental tasks of Motivational Interviewing (MI): engagement, focusing, evoking and planning. Additionally, learners deepen their understanding of strategies for highlighting change talk and softening sustain talk when working toward behavioral change with youths and families.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Review the spirit and fundamental processes of MI.
- Demonstrate effective use of MI microskills.
- Be able to elicit and reinforce change talk and soften sustain talk.
- Deepen their understanding of evoking and planning, two of the fundamental tasks of MI.
- Process and practice the knowledge and skills acquired both in this training and Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 6.5-hour, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

A learning program for Direct service staff and supervisors working in Child Protection, Prevention or Foster Care services.

ABOUT

This learning program takes a child-centered approach to intimate partner violence (IPV). During this learning program, learners are trained to identify and respond to IPV in a way that supports the non-abusive parent and children, identifies the abusive partner's pattern of behavior and documents the impact of the abuse on the children and family. The course is highly interactive, enabling learners to apply new knowledge and to practice skills in a supportive classroom environment. Before attending this instructor-led training, learners must complete an online pre-test and an eLearning module.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Better understand how to engage survivors, children and abusive partners using a strengths-based approach of compassion, partnership and respect.
- Better assess how an abusive partner is creating risk for the non-abusive partner and the children.
- Be trained how to write case notes that focus on protective strategies, behaviors that place children at risk and details that hold the abusive partner accountable.
- Be able to devise effective service plans that focus on the safety of the child and survivor.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A one-hour eLearning course.

A two-day, instructor-led workshop.

An online post-test.

A learning program for all direct service staff and supervisors working in the Division of Child Protection (DCP) and within ACS provider agencies working in Prevention, Foster Care and Juvenile Justice programs.

ABOUT

This learning program introduces learners to the common language and terminology used to enhance their trauma-responsive practice. It highlights how trauma and toxic stress impact a person and explores the impact of racism and oppression as forms of trauma. This course provides learners with foundational information on the types of traumatic responses, the Trauma Core Values, and how to infuse these principles into their work. Learners identify how to use trauma-responsive language to foster an environment that supports wellness and resilience through thoughtful reflection time, group discussions, and practice opportunities. This is the same course being offered by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS), formerly titled, Trauma-Responsive and Resilience Informed Care. Those who have previously taken this course are not required to enroll.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Extend their understanding of trauma and use shared language to improve trauma-responsive practice.
- Recognize the impact of racism and oppression as forms of trauma.
- Discuss trauma and toxic stress, the science of trauma and the human stress response.
- Identify what we know about how people adapt and grow from traumatic or adverse experiences.
- Identify practical elements of an environment that foster wellness, resilience and healing.

COMPONENTS

A learning program for direct service staff and supervisors working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This learning program engages learners with each other about implicit biases and how those biases contribute to racial disproportionality in the Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice systems — strengthening ACS's practices to support children and families starts from within the individual. During this virtual session, learners deepen their understanding and discuss the influences of implicit bias on institutional racism and structural inequity. Learners also practice strategies to reduce implicit bias and enhance equitable decision making in their work. Before attending this virtual, instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below and an online pre-test.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Understand key concepts of implicit bias and causes of racial disproportionality in Child Welfare.
- Have reviewed strategies to identify one's own implicit biases and to recognize implicit bias in others.
- Have analyzed how implicit bias affects decision-making, engagement and equitable outcomes.
- Be trained to identify the connection between trauma, institutional racism, structural inequity and implicit bias.
- Be able to employ individual strategies to reduce implicit bias.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 5.5-hour, virtual, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Using the ACS FASP Desk Guide in Foster Care Case Practice

A learning program for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Foster Care services.

ABOUT

This learning program supports the implementation of the ACS FASP Desk Guide in Foster Care Case Practice. With the expiration of Title IV-E and its impact on the funding of foster care, ACS is seeking to de-implement the Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANSNY) evidence-based assessment guidelines. In its place, the ACS Family Assessment Service Plan (FASP) Desk Guide has been developed to support foster care case planners and their supervisors in their use of the FASP to assess family strengths, risks and needs as well as to create a customized service plan that prioritizes the most pressing issues for the promotion of safety and the achievement of permanency goals.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Recognize the overall purpose and logical flow of the FASP.
- Be trained to identify how documentation and assessment impact permanency and family outcome achievement.
- Be able to use the FASP Desk Guide within daily practice and within Supervisory Coaching to strengthen family assessment and service planning.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

ABOUT ACS WORKFORCE INSTITUTE

The ACS Workforce Institute (WI) is a state-of-the-art professional development institute that supports child welfare and juvenile justice direct service staff and strengthens their skills as they support and strengthen New York City's families and children. Through partnership with the City University of New York (School of Professional Studies and the Hunter College Silberman School of Social Work), the ACS Workforce Institute offers professional learning initiatives that move beyond the classroom to enhance skill development for new and seasoned ACS and provider agency staff.
