

Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This series of Coaching Collaboratives is a follow up to the Building Coaching Competency (BCC) learning program designed to support supervisors and managers as they integrate coaching into their supervisory practice. Coaching Collaboratives provide learners the opportunity to practice coaching, meet with colleagues to discuss successes in coaching, and gain support on how to continue to implement coaching in the workplace. Ongoing support after a session includes, but is not limited to, on-site technical assistance. Before attending these virtual, instructor-led trainings, learners must complete all prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Increase their confidence in using the six coaching skills and six coaching steps that have been adapted from the coaching approach of the Atlantic Coast Child Welfare Implementation Center and in mastering the coaching process.
- Connect with peers to create a coaching community among Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice supervisors and managers.
- Strengthen their individual commitment to using the coach approach and support a coaching culture across all sectors of Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Coaching Collaborative, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-hour workshop (instructor-led or virtual).

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to starting this series, learners are required to have completed all components of the Building Coaching Competency learning program (instructor-led or virtual) or the instructor-led Building Coaching Competency for Senior Administrators course.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

The New York City Administration for Children's Services is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers #SW-0402. Each Coaching Collaborative is 2 contact hours/0.2 CEUs. This series in total is 12 contact hours/1.2 CEUs. CEU credit is contingent upon completion of all components.
