

A learning program for all levels of staff and administrators working in Foster Care services at provider agencies.

ABOUT

This eLearning program is a video that provides Foster Care agency staff with an overview of the Trauma-Responsive and Informed Parenting Program (TRIPP). TRIPP offers a new way to understand the challenges faced by children and youth in foster care. TRIPP was created with the idea that “showing up” with a trauma-informed lens – calm, self-regulated, and emotionally responsive – encourages improvements in the child’s behavior.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Identify the purpose and benefits of TRIPP.
- Understand what using a “trauma lens” and a “trauma-informed approach” mean when working with children and youth in foster care.
