

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This series of Skill Refreshers highlights each of the coaching skills: presence and listening, reflecting/clarifying, questioning, feedback, and accountability. Learners practice each skill to gain proficiency and confidence in using the Coach Approach with their staff. Learners have the opportunity to engage in a variety of discussions, activities and practice sessions that promote and support mastery of the coaching skills. The Skill Refreshers constitute Phase I of the Advanced Coaching program. Completion of this series of five Skill Refreshers qualifies learners to move on to Phase II of the Advanced Coaching program. Before attending these trainings, learners must complete all prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Continue practicing the coaching skills.
- Receive in-the-moment feedback and support from facilitators.
- Increase their confidence and proficiency in using the coaching skills in their daily practice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Skill Refresher, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-hour workshop (instructor-led or virtual).

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to starting this series, learners are required to have completed:

- All components of the Building Coaching Competency learning program (instructor-led or virtual) or the instructor-led Building Coaching Competency for Senior Administrators course.
- At least one course within the Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives learning program (virtual or instructor-led).

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

The New York City Administration for Children's Services is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers #SW-0402. Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This series of Coaching Collaboratives is a follow up to the Building Coaching Competency (BCC) learning program designed to support supervisors and managers as they integrate coaching into their supervisory practice. Coaching Collaboratives provide learners the opportunity to practice coaching, meet with colleagues to discuss successes in coaching, and gain support on how to continue to implement coaching in the workplace. Ongoing support after a session includes, but is not limited to, on-site technical assistance. Before attending these virtual, instructor-led trainings, learners must complete all prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Increase their confidence in using the six coaching skills and six coaching steps that have been adapted from the coaching approach of the Atlantic Coast Child Welfare Implementation Center and in mastering the coaching process.
- Connect with peers to create a coaching community among Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice supervisors and managers.
- Strengthen their individual commitment to using the coach approach and support a coaching culture across all sectors of Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Coaching Collaborative, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-hour workshop (instructor-led or virtual).

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

A learning program for all staff working in Child Welfare who will be facilitating Family Team Conferences.

ABOUT

This training informs facilitators of the changes in Family Team Conference (FTC) practice as embodied in the new Child Welfare Program's (CWP) Integrated Family Team Conference Model that will be used in ACS and Foster Care and Prevention agencies. This training discusses the goals of this model, what conferences will be facilitated by ACS, and how the model can result in a more integrated continuum of conferences. This training uses interactive scenarios and activities to reinforce core FTC components, such as the six-stage structure, safety and risk decision making, family engagement and management review. Before attending this instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Be made aware of the changes in FTC practice that will be used throughout the Child Welfare system in alignment with the new CWP Integrated Family Team Conference Model.
- Better understand the goals of this model and how it aligns with the integrated continuum of conferences.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

A four-day, instructor-led training.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to attending this course, participants are required to have completed the two-day Safety and Risk: Investigation, Synthesis and Investigation course offered by the ACS Workforce Institute or equivalent.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

There are no CEUs associated with this course.

A learning program for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection, Prevention, Foster Care and Juvenile Justice. Direct service staff and supervisors in Child Protection, Prevention and Foster Care are required to attend.

ABOUT

This learning program is an update of the previous Motivational Interviewing: A Strengths-Based Practice and Foundational Motivational Interviewing (MI) courses. In this course, learners strengthen their capacity to use MI towards building partnerships. Learners examine their own style of communication and how it impacts the thoughts of others regarding change. Learners demonstrate their ability to listen to the perspectives of families and caregivers to shape how questions are asked, accurately identify their needs, and help draw out their own ideas for ways to change. Using scenarios and group exercises, learners hone their ability to cultivate strengths-based conversations, model affirmations, and make effective reflections.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Define MI in a way that underscores its guiding nature and demonstrates its guiding aspects.
- Describe the spirit and four fundamental tasks of MI.
- Identify and demonstrate MI OARS (Open-Ended Questions, Affirmations, Reflections and Summaries) microskills.
- Recognize “change talk” and “sustain talk” in the context of MI and explain the role they play in supporting individuals to make behavioral change.
- Identify how MI can be used in day-to-day work.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A four-hour, virtual, instructor-led workshop.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this course.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Practicum

A learning program required for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection. Direct service staff and supervisors in Prevention are also required to attend. The program is recommended for those working in foster care agencies.

ABOUT

This learning program is a continuation of Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships and enables learners to further practice and apply the skills presented in the prior training. Through a variety of learning approaches, including case scenarios, games and both large and small group role plays, learners build on their knowledge of the four fundamental tasks of Motivational Interviewing (MI): engagement, focusing, evoking and planning. Additionally, learners deepen their understanding of strategies for highlighting change talk and softening sustain talk when working toward behavioral change with youths and families.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Review the spirit and fundamental processes of MI.
- Demonstrate effective use of MI microskills.
- Be able to elicit and reinforce change talk and soften sustain talk.
- Deepen their understanding of evoking and planning, two of the fundamental tasks of MI.
- Process and practice the knowledge and skills acquired both in this training and Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 6.5-hour, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES
