

A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This series of Skill Refreshers highlights each of the coaching skills: presence and listening, reflecting/clarifying, questioning, feedback, and accountability. Learners practice each skill to gain proficiency and confidence in using the Coach Approach with their staff. Learners have the opportunity to engage in a variety of discussions, activities and practice sessions that promote and support mastery of the coaching skills. The Skill Refreshers constitute Phase I of the Advanced Coaching program. Completion of this series of five Skill Refreshers qualifies learners to move on to Phase II of the Advanced Coaching program. Before attending these trainings, learners must complete all prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Continue practicing the coaching skills.
- Receive in-the-moment feedback and support from facilitators.
- Increase their confidence and proficiency in using the coaching skills in their daily practice.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Skill Refresher, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-hour workshop
(instructor-led or virtual).

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary
to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Prior to starting this series, learners are required to have completed:

- All components of the Building Coaching Competency learning program (instructor-led or virtual) or the instructor-led Building Coaching Competency for Senior Administrators course.
- At least one course within the Building Coaching Competency: Coaching Collaboratives learning program (virtual or instructor-led).

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

The New York City Administration for Children's Services is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers #SW-0402. A learning program for supervisors and managers working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice, or anyone who has the responsibility to guide and continually improve the performance of direct service staff.

ABOUT

This learning program provides learners with coaching skills and strategies aimed at creating a more collaborative, strengths-based culture. The first half of the instructor-led session supports learners in understanding the steps to successful coaching and applying the coaching skills in their supervisory roles. The second half of the session uses simulations to help identify coaching skills and practice incorporating them into everyday work. Learners are not required to have prior formal coaching experience or training. Follow-up coaching support to ensure effective implementation will be available. Before attending this virtual, instructor-led training, learners must complete an online pre-test and an eLearning module introducing the coaching skills, process and mindset.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Be trained to practice effective strategies to create a collaborative, strengths-based culture to support their staff.
- Be trained how to integrate coaching strategies into supervision to build confidence, boost morale and encourage critical thinking skills among staff members.
- Be introduced to skills and concepts that contribute to the long-term professional development of supervisors and staff.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in each Coaching Collaborative, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 30-minute eLearning course.

A half-day, virtual, instructor-led workshop.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

A learning program for all staff working in Child Welfare who will be facilitating Family Team Conferences.

ABOUT

This training informs facilitators of the changes in Family Team Conference (FTC) practice as embodied in the new Child Welfare Program's (CWP) Integrated Family Team Conference Model that will be used in ACS and Foster Care and Prevention agencies. This training discusses the goals of this model, what conferences will be facilitated by ACS, and how the model can result in a more integrated continuum of conferences. This training uses interactive scenarios and activities to reinforce core FTC components, such as the six-stage structure, safety and risk decision making, family engagement and management review. Before attending this instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Be made aware of the changes in FTC practice that will be used throughout the Child Welfare system in alignment with the new CWP Integrated Family Team Conference Model.
- Better understand the goals of this model and how it aligns with the integrated continuum of conferences.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

A four-day, instructor-led training.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

A learning program required for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection. Direct service staff and supervisors in Prevention and Foster Care are also required to attend.

ABOUT

This learning program is an update of the previous Motivational Interviewing: A Strengths-Based Practice and Foundational Motivational Interviewing (MI) courses. In this course, learners strengthen their capacity to use MI towards building partnerships. Learners examine their own style of communication and how it impacts the thoughts of others regarding change. Learners demonstrate their ability to listen to the perspectives of families and caregivers to shape how questions are asked, accurately identify their needs, and help draw out their own ideas for ways to change. Using scenarios and group exercises, learners hone their ability to cultivate strengths-based conversations, model affirmations, and make effective reflections.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Define MI in a way that underscores its guiding nature and demonstrates its guiding aspects.
- Describe the spirit and four fundamental tasks of MI.
- Identify and demonstrate MI OARS (Open-Ended Questions, Affirmations, Reflections and Summaries) microskills.
- Recognize “change talk” and “sustain talk” in the context of MI and explain the role they play in supporting individuals to make behavioral change.
- Identify how MI can be used in day-to-day work.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A four-hour, virtual, instructor-led workshop.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Practicum

A learning program required for direct service staff, supervisors and managers working in Child Protection. Direct service staff and supervisors in Prevention are also required to attend. The program is recommended for those working in foster care agencies.

ABOUT

This learning program is a continuation of Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships and enables learners to further practice and apply the skills presented in the prior training. Through a variety of learning approaches, including case scenarios, games and both large and small group role plays, learners build on their knowledge of the four fundamental tasks of Motivational Interviewing (MI): engagement, focusing, evoking and planning. Additionally, learners deepen their understanding of strategies for highlighting change talk and softening sustain talk when working toward behavioral change with youths and families.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Review the spirit and fundamental processes of MI.
- Demonstrate effective use of MI microskills.
- Be able to elicit and reinforce change talk and soften sustain talk.
- Deepen their understanding of evoking and planning, two of the fundamental tasks of MI.
- Process and practice the knowledge and skills acquired both in this training and Foundations of Motivational Interviewing: Communicating to Build Partnerships.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 6.5-hour, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

Tending the Roots: Recognizing Trauma and Cultivating Wellness

This learning program is for all direct service staff and supervisors working in the Division of Child Protection (DCP) and within ACS provider agencies working in Prevention, Foster Care and Juvenile Justice programs.

ABOUT

This learning program introduces learners to the common language and terminology used to enhance their trauma-responsive practice. Learners will recognize how trauma and toxic stress impact a person and their experiences. Additionally, this course provides learners with foundational information on the types of traumatic responses, the Trauma Core Values, and how to infuse these principles into their work. Through thoughtful reflection time, group discussions, and practice opportunities, learners identify ways to use trauma-responsive language to effectively communicate and model collaboration with families. This is the same course being offered by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS).

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Extend their understanding of trauma and use shared language to improve trauma-responsive practice.
- Discuss trauma and toxic stress, the science of trauma and the human stress response.
- Identify what we know about how people adapt and grow from traumatic or adverse experiences.
- Analyze the impact of trauma on service providers and identify ways of promoting self-care in the work environment.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A two-day, virtual, instructor-led workshop.

Understanding and Undoing Implicit Bias

A learning program for direct service staff and supervisors working in Child Welfare or Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This learning program engages learners with each other about implicit biases and how those biases contribute to racial disproportionality in the Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice systems — strengthening ACS's practices to support children and families starts from within the individual. During this virtual session, learners deepen their understanding and discuss the influences of implicit bias on institutional racism and structural inequity. Learners also practice strategies to reduce implicit bias and enhance equitable decision making in their work. Before attending this virtual, instructor-led training, learners must complete all course prerequisites listed below and an online pre-test.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Understand key concepts of implicit bias and causes of racial disproportionality in Child Welfare.
- Have reviewed strategies to identify one's own implicit biases and to recognize implicit bias in others.
- Have analyzed how implicit bias affects decision-making, engagement and equitable outcomes.
- Be trained to identify the connection between trauma, institutional racism, structural inequity and implicit bias.
- Be able to employ individual strategies to reduce implicit bias.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A 5.5-hour, virtual, instructor-led training.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.
