

Office of Training and Workforce Development

FY2020 Impact Statement

The Office of Training and Workforce Development provides foundational and continuous learning for child welfare and juvenile justice direct service staff and supervisors. Through the use of simulation, coaching and other best practices in adult learning, staff develop strength-based skills to protect and support the children, youth and families of New York City.

The James Satterwhite Academy

focuses on establishing the foundations of fundamental practice for newly hired direct service staff and supervisors. Founded in 1987, the James Satterwhite Academy, named for its first executive director, is a national leader in child welfare and juvenile justice training and professional development.

To contact the James Satterwhite Academy please email JSARegistration@acs.nyc.gov.

The Workforce Institute provides ongoing professional skills development for direct service staff and supervisors at ACS and its many partner agencies across the child welfare and juvenile justice sectors. Developed in 2016, the Institute is a partnership between ACS and the City University of New York (School of Professional Studies and the Hunter College Silberman School of Social Work).

To contact the Workforce Institute please email wihelpdesk@acs.nyc.gov or call (212) 748-1898.

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Office of Training and Workforce Development adapted most trainings and transfer of learning activities into virtual opportunities. Learners attending trainings in April 2020 through the rest of the fiscal year benefitted from high quality virtual synchronous and asynchronous learning. The information in the subsequent pages reflects our work in Fiscal Year 2020 (July 2019 through June 2020) with certain sections divided between July 2019 through March 2020 and April 2020 through June 2020.

Our Team

Staff are culturally diverse, experienced, and highly qualified to provide professional development opportunities to direct service staff and supervisors.

FY20 Accomplishments

Improving and Strengthening Practice

Child Protective Specialist (CPS) Practice Core

The James Satterwhite Academy completed onboarding training for 480 new Child Protective Specialists (CPS). The CPS Practice Core is a 41-day intensive onboarding program for new staff. In FY20, the James Satterwhite Academy successfully implemented the CPS Practice Core refresh with two classes of new CPS. This redesigned program included updated content and alignment of classroom training with on-the-job-learning with support from the Practice Instructors (a position created for this purpose). Additionally, an assessment process was developed, which included creating tools to assess CPS-in-training so they can receive timely feedback.

Youth Development Specialist (YDS) Core

The James Satterwhite Academy completed onboarding training for 341 new Youth Development Specialists (YDS). The YDS Core is a 5-week intensive onboarding program for new staff that includes a combination of classroom learning and on-the-job training.

Understanding and Undoing Implicit Bias

The Workforce Institute continued to provide the Understanding and Undoing Implicit Bias learning program, which includes an eLearning module and a one-day instructor-led training, after its successful rollout in FY19. In FY20, 2,553 learners completed the eLearning module for a total completion from rollout through the end of FY20 of 8,159 learners. In FY20 from July 2019 through March 2020, 1,005 learners completed the one-day instructor-led training (ILT). In April 2020, the Workforce Institute adapted the instructor-led training to be offered virtually and trained 219 learners through the end of June 2020. From rollout through the end of FY20, a total of 2,448 learners have completed the instructor-led training.

Safety Culture

In FY20, the Workforce Institute provided 22 Safety Science Orientations attended by 683 ACS staff and leadership, conducted a Listening Tour to gather information from ten ACS work units who are key to creating psychological safety across the organization, and developed and delivered six skill-based workshops.

School Fair

The Workforce Institute hosted its annual College and Graduate School Fair with college and university representatives from nearly 30 undergraduate and graduate programs throughout the Tri-State area. Over 200 ACS employees attended to learn more about the programs these schools offer, and the support provided through the Professional Development Program.

FY20 Accomplishments

Changing Culture

Coaching Recruitment Campaign

In FY20, before COVID-19, the Coaching Team held a mixer celebrating learners that completed Phase I of the Advanced Coaching Program with 45 people in attendance. The Team also delivered 27 Coaching Collaboratives to 186 learners to address barriers to implementation and 16 enhanced workshops from the Skill Refresher series to 129 learners.

During COVID-19, the Coaching Team developed and shared a short video to reengage learners, delivered specialized workshops that focused on using coaching to support staff through difficult times, delivered eight virtual coaching workshops to 71 learners, and developed and distributed Coaching Tips of the week to engage learners and support the transfer of learning.

Supporting Knowledge into Practice (SKIP) Team

In FY20, Coaches held 620 coaching and motivational interviewing transfer of learning events, with 3,007 participants in total. This is more than double the number of events held the previous fiscal year.

The “Coaching at a Glance” micro-learning video was created to introduce coaching to new and existing staff across the child welfare and juvenile justice sectors. The video supports supervisors and staff in understanding the importance of coaching and how to build a successful coaching relationship.

Borough-Based Coaches collaborated with the Division of Child Protection on the planning, preparation and facilitation of Safety Circles. Their role was to focus specifically on how the integration of the coach approach into supervision encourages staff critical thinking and supports staff to use strengths-based engagement and foundational motivational interviewing skills to gather thorough information to inform assessments and make the most appropriate safety decisions. Data from over 1,500 Safety Circle participants indicates a high level of commitment to using practice tools as well as high levels of commitment to and confidence in using the coach approach.

The Practice Instructor team implemented the Motivational Interviewing Practice Lab Protocol with supervisors and their units in the Division of Child Protection Staten Island Borough Office and Bronx South Borough Office. These labs were designed to support Child Protective Specialists to develop their strengths-based engagement and foundational motivational interviewing skills to integrate into their daily practice with families. This initiative was paused due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

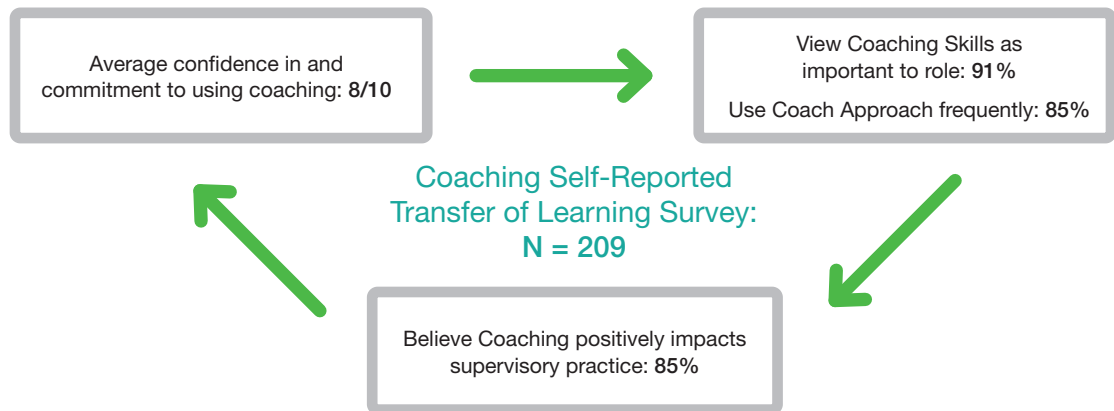

FY20 Accomplishments

Ongoing Assessment and Improvement

Transfer of Learning Building Coaching Competency Survey – Cohort 2

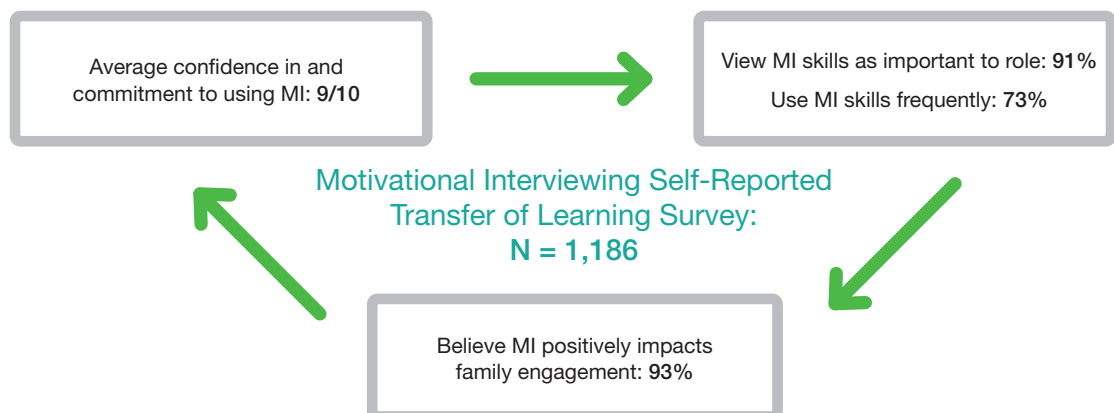

The Workforce Institute disseminated the Transfer of Learning Coaching Survey to learners who took the Building Coaching Competency program after the initial dissemination of the survey in Fall 2018. The survey's purpose was to gather information on the self-reported frequency of use of the coach approach and coaching skills as well as other factors that support transfer of learning. The survey captured responses from 209 learners (42% response rate). Survey results replicated findings from the initial 2018 survey: high levels of buy in around the coach approach as well as high self-reported use of coaching.

Transfer of Learning Motivational Interviewing Survey

The Workforce Institute disseminated the Transfer of Learning Motivational Interviewing Survey to learners who took the Motivational Interviewing program since 2016. The survey's purpose was to understand the degree to which child welfare and juvenile justice professionals use Motivational Interviewing skills in their day-to-day practice as well as to assess other measures that are drivers of transfer of learning. With 1,186 responses (26% response rate; data collection closed due to impact of COVID-19), data indicated high levels of buy-in of the Motivational Interviewing spirit and skills as well as high self-reported use of Motivational Interviewing skills.

FY20 Accomplishments

Space

The Office of Training and Workforce Development continued to develop the training spaces at 92-31 Union Hall in Queens and 55 West 125th Street in Manhattan. Progress towards completing the sites was slowed and further delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Both sites should be fully complete by the end of Calendar Year 2020.

Conference Presentations

Members of the Family Assessment Response (FAR) team presented workshops at the International Conference on Innovations in Family Engagement.
November 2019

Family Assessment Response (FAR) Coaches were selected by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services (NYS OCFS) to host a virtual Learning Exchange for child protective staff throughout the state.
April 2020

Members of the Evaluation team presented on transforming knowledge into action at the Qualtrics North East Community Symposium.
January 2020

Members of the Professional Development Program (PDP) team presented at the International Association for Social Work with Groups (IASWG) Conference.
June 2020

Professional Development Program

The Professional Development Program (PDP) supports and encourages the professional development of ACS employees who are pursuing their undergraduate or graduate level studies as well as supports the continued professional development of licensed social workers at ACS. Educational support services include: Release time for classes, assistance with Field Placement/Internships for students pursuing their MSW degree, and other services, such as individual and group support. PDP also administers the ACS Scholarship Program which is comprised of the Dr. James R. Dumpson Scholarship for Graduate level studies and the Nicholas Scoppetta Scholarship for Undergraduate level studies.
