

A learning program for direct service staff and supervisors working in Child Welfare.

ABOUT

This eLearning program provides Child Welfare professionals with information on the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) and an overview of the historical factors that led to its creation. During this training, learners are also trained in the steps necessary to help children of Native American heritage remain in an environment that recognizes and supports their culture whenever possible. Before attending this eLearning training, learners must complete an online pre-test.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Better understand the Child Welfare best practices associated with the ICWA.
- Become more familiar with the conversation and action expectations when working with a child or family of Native American heritage.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

An online pre-test.

A one-hour eLearning course.

An online post-test.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this course.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

The New York City Administration for Children's Services is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers #SW-0402. This course is 1.0 contact hours/0.1 CEUs. CEU credit is contingent upon completion of all course components.

REGISTRATION

Register for this course by logging in to Cornerstone, browse for the course name and complete all information. For more information about the ACS Workforce Institute, please contact the Help Desk at WIhelpdesk@acs.nyc.gov or call (212) 748-1898.

ABOUT ACS WORKFORCE INSTITUTE

The ACS Workforce Institute (WI) is a state-of-the-art professional development institute that supports child welfare and juvenile justice direct service staff and strengthens their skills as they support and strengthen New York City's families and children. Through partnership with the City University of New York (School of Professional Studies and the Hunter College Silberman School of Social Work), the ACS Workforce Institute offers professional learning initiatives that move beyond the classroom to enhance skill development for new and seasoned ACS and provider agency staff.

Visit our website at www.nycacstraining.org

