

A learning program for all staff working in Juvenile Justice.

ABOUT

This eLearning program assists learners in recognizing what is necessary for identifying, preventing and disposing of traditional and non-traditional forms of contraband. Learners explore how the presence and distribution of contraband compromises their authority, peer relationships, and the safety of youths.

BENEFITS

Learners will:

- Identify traditional and non-traditional items considered to be contraband in a secure detention facility.
- Recognize how managing the presence and distribution of contraband can increase facility safety and minimize incidents of their authority being compromised.
- Improve facility safety by accurately reporting, documenting, securing and disposing of contraband.

COMPONENTS

Once enrolled in the course, learners will complete:

A 30-minute eLearning.

Completion of all components is necessary to receive a Certificate of Completion.

PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this course.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

There are no CEUs associated with this course.

REGISTRATION

Register for this course by logging in to Cornerstone, browse for the course name and complete all information. For more information about the ACS Workforce Institute, please contact the Help Desk at WIhelpdesk@acs.nyc.gov or call (212) 748-1898.

ABOUT ACS WORKFORCE INSTITUTE

A state-of-the-art professional development institute that strengthens skills and provides support to child welfare and juvenile justice direct service staff as they strengthen and support New York City's families and children. Through partnership with the City University of New York (School of Professional Studies and the Hunter College Silberman School of Social Work), the ACS Workforce Institute offers professional learning initiatives that move beyond the classroom to enhance skill development for new and seasoned ACS and provider agency staff.

Visit our website at www.nycacstraining.org.

